

of New York City

Pamela Maraldo, Ph.D., RN.

Chief Executive Officer, Girls Inc. of New York City

Pamela Maraldo, Ph.D., RN is the Chief Executive Officer of Girls Inc. of New York City (GINYC). Prior to joining GINYC, she was the Chief Executive Officer of Planned Parenthood Federation of America and the National League for Nursing. She is the founder of several organizations and the founding managing partner of PJM Associates, a strategy consulting company. She served 8 years as a mayoral appointee to the New York City Board of Health under several administrations and she is a fellow of the American Academy of Nursing and the New York Academy of Medicine.

Pamela received a Ph.D. from New York University and a BS in Nursing from Adelphi University School of Nursing. She currently serves on several Boards and Advisory committees related to important social issues, including Comunilife and the Global Justice Center. She is a speaker and author of books and articles that address a wide range of health and social policy subjects and has appeared on programs such as Good Morning America, Dateline, and The Charlie Rose Show. Her books include Women's Health for Dummies and Medicine in Search of a Soul (Winter 2017).

Girls Inc. of NYC | 120 Wall Street New York, NY 10005 | Tel: 212 531-7620 | www.girlsincnyc.org